County Sligo Golf Club

County Sligo Golf Club is situated in Rosses Point, a seaside village eight kilometres North West of Sligo town, and is one of the oldest and best known links courses in Ireland. The links are set out on one of the most scenic locations in Ireland - bounded by the Atlantic Ocean on the west. Co Sligo Golf Club is the home of the annual West of Ireland Championships and is also host to the 2011 Home Internationals and the 2011 Carr Mara Trophy.

Enniscrone Golf Club

Welcome to Enniscrone Golf Club, located in County Sligo in Northwest Ireland. Situated beside the picturesque seaside town of Enniscrone (also spelt as Inniscrone), the golf course affords panoramic views of Killala Bay, Bartra Island and sandy beaches with Nephin and the Ox Mountains forming the backdrop. Founded in 1918, redesigned by Eddie Hackett in 1974 and by Donald Steel in 2001, this Irish championship course is one of Ireland's finest authentic golf links.

Strandhill Golf Club

A visit to Strandhill Golf Course is a must for golfing visitors to Sligo. Situated 8km west of the city of Sligo and nestled under the famous Knocknarea Mountain, these 5804 meters of undulating fairways and unforgiving short cuts makes it a course to remember. The player can also enjoy an uninterrupted view of spectacular scenery made famous in Song and Story. Strandhill Golf Club offers full restaurant and bar facilities, a fully equipped golf shop with club hire and buggy hire.
